In order to calculate an advance payment from _____ (Music Publisher)

I hereby give my consent to let the Music Publisher, by contacting Koda, obtain and receive information from Koda about my works and revenues in the form of:

1. An advanced export with all details (i.e. not just standard Excel or pdf export, which are just summaries) for all works for which I have shares as creator.
2. An account summary of my distribution statements from Koda, including NCB/Online, for five full years plus the current year (for example, set the entire 2019 start date to January 1, 2014).

The Music Publisher may let any of its employees make use of the consent and contact Koda but cannot transfer the consent or the information received to third parties.

The consent does not include access to My Koda, and the Music Publisher does not obtain a right to access any other information or take any action on my behalf.

Other terms

The consent is valid for two months from my signature and will automatically elapse once the Music Publisher has received the said information. I can at any time within the two months freely withdraw the consent.

It is my own responsibility to make sure to withdraw the consent if this is made relevant due to my relationship to the Music Publisher.
